TWO RACES FOR S. S. BROWN.

ACCOUNTANT BEATS BENNETT IN MONTAUK STAKES

And Retropaw Wins Maiden Two-Year-Old Event-Bad News, a Hot Favorite, Takes the Handicap in Fast Time -Rube Breaks His Leg and Is Killed.

S. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire turf-8. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire turiman, won two races at Brighton Beach yesterday with Accountant and Retropaw. The Montauk Stakes, for two-year-oids, at six furiongs, went to Accountant, a colt by Fillgrane, who was a heavily played second choice at 7 to 5. He received twenty pounds from the 5 to 5 (exercise George Constant). from the 6 to 5 favorite, George C. Bennett, and after making all the running he won easily by two lengths in 1:14 2-5. Under a drive from Willie Davis, George C. Bennett came on in the stretch and took the place from the Ormondale Stable's Ormondale, 6 to 1, by a length: Retropaw, 7 to 2 second choice, received a superb ride from Jack Martin in the first race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, and landed the money on the a hair furions, and landed the money of the post by a head, after a long, hard drive through the stretch. H. DeC. Forbes's Listless, s to 1, a filly by Voter, who made most of the pace, was second, half a dozen lengths before T. J. Gaynor's Senechal, backed down to sevens, with John E. Madden's Deding, another good thing, a head den's Dodina, another good thing, a head back. The time was 1:08.

E. R. Bradley's Bad News, 6 to 6 favorite.

E. R. Bradley's Bad News, 6 to 6 favorite, after a rattling race with Jack Bennett's Pretension, played down to 8 to 1, won the handleap at nine furlongs in hands of the state of the stat handicap at nine furlongs in handy style by three parts of a length, in the fast time of 1.51 3-5. Pretension, who took place money, had four lengths over T. C. McDowell's Geranium, a 12 to 1 shot, with the liberally backed Humo fourth. Bad News gave nineteen pounds by the scale to Pretension backed Humo fourth. Bad News gave nineteen pounds by the scale to Pretension and seven to Geranium, incidentally running his best race of the season.

Just when Rube, the favorite in the steeple-chase, seemed to have the race at his mercy he suddenly stopped with a broken leg. The accident occurred after he had taken the last jump, when he was about to leave the grass for the dirt track. He hobbled about opposite the betting ring on three legs for ten minutes, until he was finally dragged into a horse ambulance, a bullet ending his agony not long after. H. S. Fage's Graceaway, a 30 to 1 shot, turned up the winner of this affair, the mare romping home eight lengths in front of George Keene, 15 to 1, with Neponset, 12 to 1, two lengths back. Knight of Harlem, second choice, was badly beaten, while Joseph E. Widener's Gatebell, 5 to 1, fell, his rider, J. O'Brien, being taken to the hospital suffering from concussion of the brain. The time was 424.

Head Dance, who was backed from 200 to 1 down to 40 to 1, would have won the third race, for platers, at a mile and a sixteenth, had not william Astor Chanler's Novena, a 20 to 1 shot, rushed up in time to beat him a nose in the last jump. Voladay, 4 to 1, after a poor ride, finished third, a head back. Incubator and Dinah Shad, equal favorites, could not get out of their own way apparently. The time was 1:47 2-5.

The Oneck Stable's colors were carried to victory in impressive style in the last race, for three-year-old fillies, six furlongs, by Kiamesha, 2 to 1 second choice. She was off last, but Hildebrand, using his whip, rushed her quickly to the front, and then let her breeze home three lengths in front of the favorite, Fleur de Marie, who beat Gold Rose, 5 to 1, half a length. The race was run in 1:3 4-5. Five favorites were beaten. The attendance was 15,000. The summaries:

Bessie Lightfoot was the talent's picking in the 2:20 pace. She managed to win a heat after Rector had won two. The latter gave indications of winning in straight heats, but Lenox Boy was turned loose and won the last three heats. The summary:

KILLING WITH THE TORSO COLT FAILS TO GO THROUGH.

But Many Place and Show Wagers Make Holes in the Layers' Bank Rolls—Operations in the Ring—Mrs. Langtry Once Offered $25,000 for Ormondale.

If Head Dance, a three-year-old colt by Torso-Hula, had won the third race yester-day instead of being beaten a nose by Novena, day instead of being beaten a nose by Novena, the ring would have received a pretty thorough scorching. As it was, the place and show bets made on the colt were of sufficient magnitude to bore good sized holes in several bank rolls. Head Dance is owned jointly by R. A. Rainey and C. T. Henshall. When some books quoted 200 to 1 against him there was a ush to get aboard, but the hustlers who had the money to bet were too eager to get it down, and instead of offering the layers $10 wagers at the top price, they shoved $50 bills in their faces with the result that the price was rubbed off the alate entirely, with 100 to 1 substituted. A few $50 wagers were taken at this price, but the odds kept on tumbling until at the while other sharp fellows who had the tip took the colt all three ways.

Charley Cash dropped $2,000 on Dinah Shad, with Joe Murphy losing $1,000. Charley Fox played Incubator, Joe Yeager split $1,000 on Waswift, Tony Aste split a wager on Rubric, and E. R. Jack McDonald stood to win nearly $15,000 on Listless, who was beaten a head, with P. Ray, the clubhouse commissioner, having $500 on the Voter filly at 8 to 1. J. Callahan took Orifiamme.

Capins in the Montauk Stakes, has fust arrived here from the West with an excellent reputation.

There are stories in circulation among the bookmakers to the effect that one of the best known owners in the East is in financial difficulty. It is said he has encountered an unusual streak of ill luck lately and that he owes many markers. Yesterday one of his commissioners appeared in the ring, but before several layers would accept a dollar they could be held personally responsible for the payment of the bet. He agreed to be held.

Martin rode Retropaw and Accountant in brilliant style. No jockey can put it over him when he is at his best.

When the ambulance arrived to cart the ill fated Rube away, a hood was thrown over the Onondaga gelding's head, so that he could not see where he was going. Then he was dragged toward the wagon, but he reared and threw off the hood. The women in the grand stand screamed and cried "Shame!" But the crippled jumper was carted away quickly and was soon forgotten.

Harry Page saw Graceaway win the jumping event in his colors with chagrin. He did not have a bet down, it was said.

White himself worked desperately to win, slamming out a two bagger, drawing the safe ones and stating two bases. two passes and stealing two bases.

Chicago scored first—the only run which the locals could acquire. In the fourth round Yeager fumbled Donahue's grounder. Two Yeager fumbled Donahue's grounder. Two men went out and Sullivan singled. Then the double steal was worked, Donahue coming safely home.

New York tied it up in the fifth. Conroy singled and Keeler beat a bunt. Elberfeld sacrificed, and Williams hit down to Tannehill, who fumbled and then got Williams at first. Conroy scored in the seventh, when the winning run came over. With one out. Conroy drew four balls. Keeler grounded to Isbell, and the fortunes of the day rested with little Elberfeld. He smote sharply across the diamond, and Conroy rushed in with what proved to be the last and deciding run. The score:

MORE PILLAGING BY PIRATES.

NEW YORKS BEATEN IN THREE GAMES OUT OF FOUR.

McGann and Donlin Put Out of the Game for Kicking, and Taylor's Delivery Strewn All Over the Dememe-Beds and Cardinals Other National Winners.

The storm that scurried over New York resterday and left a trail of dampness on the grounds at Washington Park was kinder to the Brooklyns than to the New Yorks. It kept the Brooklyns from playing the Chicagos, but did not touch the Polo Grounds. Con-sequently the New Yorks had to buckle on their armor and give battle to the stout Pittsburgs. They were beaten for the third successive time by Clarke's unfeeling war-riors. The Cincinnatis won in Philadelphia and the Cardinals in Boston. The results: Pittsburg, S; New York, S.

The inconsiderate Pirates went away from our hospitable shores last night with the laugh on their side. The four time clash between them and the New Yorks at the Polo Grounds ended yesterday with the third vic-laugh on their side. The four time clash between them and the New Yorks at the Polo Grounds ended yesterday with the third yictory for the Pirates. The Pirates did not make any ninth inning finishes, as did the New Yorks, but all told they foraged very successfully in the home team's country. When they got through with Taylor yesterday their base hits were strewn all over the demesne, and they had also outplayed the New Yorks in fielding, base running and the less tangible but none the less influential ingredient of vim. The New Yorks had a pretty good lead, but could not keep it against the persistent hitting of the resolute, resourceful Pittsburgers. The champions were much below par, were inclined to flightiness in fielding and a general lack of tone.

Two New Yorkers, McGann and Donlin, were sent from the field for kicking, and these with other changes brought thirteen locals into the fray before the finish. Heine Flaherty was batted out of the box in the second inning, bringing in Sam Leever, who squared accounts for his trimming last Saturday.

The Pittsburgs joited Taylor safely in every inning save one, but the mute pulled out of a tight fix in fine style in the first. Hits by Clymer and Leach and Clarke's promenade filled the bases, with none out. The mighty Wagner struck out—later he was more troublesome. On Howard's grounder to Gilbert.

Meries opened New York's half of the second with a home run to right. Dahlen filed to Beaumont, and Devlin singled. Clymer's singjudgment of Gilbert's long fly yielded two bases, Devlin scooting to third. With Bowerman up, the crafty Flaherty endeavored to make a quick return pitch, but created a Frankenstein that devoured him. The ball slipped from his hand, the umpire called a balk and Devlin trotted in. Bowerman hit slowly to Flaherty, and Gilbert beat the throw to the plate. Howard's two bagger and Browne's muff gave the Pittsburgs a run in the third, and Browne drove two men across the pan in the fourth with a cracking two timer to right.
